MATTHEW BAKER

Matthew Baker, aged 66 years, died at his home at the Center on Sunday afternoon after a short illness. Although he had not been in very good health for some time past, his death is deeply regretted.

He leaves his wife who was Ida Dewell Gordon, and several brothers and sisters.

MARTIN RYAN

The entire community was saddened upon hearing of the death of Martin Ryan which took place on Monday morning, August 7th, at 2 o'clock in the Champlain Valley hospital at Plattsburgh. He died at the age of 37.

Martin had been in poor health for nearly three years, but it was only twelve days before his death that he became bedridden. He took his intense suffering like a true soldier, never uttering a word of complaint, always things of others rather than himself.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Ryan, six sisters, Mrs. James Jones and Mrs. Charles Jones, of Morrisville, Vt., Mrs. Emmett Ryan, of Yonkers, Mrs. Gaylord Cheeseman, of Troy, Mrs. John Plumley, of Long Lake, and Mrs. Daniel Green, of Forest. Six brothers, John, James, Henry, Thomas and William, of Ellenburg Center, and Charles, of Plattsburgh.

G. W. Carpenter surveyed some cottage lots at the Lake for Jerry Blanche on Saturday. The lots are on the west side of the Narrows just south of the bridge in the wonderful reforested pine lot. Mr. Blanche sold to Rev. Molineux, of New Jersey a most beautiful location for a cottage.

Many of our farmers have finished haying and harvesting during the very dry days past. Miss Helen Carpenter is visiting in Plattsburgh this week.

Ray Gordon, Mrs. Albert Coolidge, Elmer Baker and quite a number from the Eastern States are in town for Matthew Baker's funeral. We regret very much to learn of John Otis' death. He lived in our town many years ago and was much respected.

Ellenburg Depot

Award Won By Kin of Late I. L. Sheldon on August 3rd.

Miss Ruth Ann Sheldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sheldon of Nehawka, Nebraska, and the granddaughter of the late I. L. Sheldon, of Ellenburg Depot, has won the Danforth Scholarship given to a University of Nebraska freshman which entitles her to a two weeks vacation at Danforth Training camp.

Miss Sheldon answered questions on a questionnaire and wrote an essay on "Importance of a Well Balanced Development, Physical, Mental, and Social and Religious in Attaining Leadership," to win this trip. This was part of her university work.

Miss Sheldon has been designated last year's most outstanding freshman Home Economics student of the University of Nebraska by the dean of the School of Home Economics and a faculty committee.

In competition with all members of the freshman class specializing in Home Economics, she was selected as most outstanding and most representative.

Miss Sheldon is active in 4-H Club, PWCA, the Home Economics Association, the Glee Club, and the Boarding Club.

Rev. Cruthers, pastor of the Congregational church, of Malone, will preach at the Baptist church at 2:30 p. m. on Sunday, August 21st. Rev. Mr. Johnston is taking his vacation during the month of August and the Rev. Mr. Cruthers has kindly consented to come to us for August 21st.

Mrs. Flora Myers spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. Ross Paul at Chazy.

Mrs. Clifton McGregor is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Appgar, of Endicott.

Rev. Paul Conrad, director of promotion of Baptist churches of New York State, was a caller at the Sheldon home on Tuesday.
