

Bradshaw-Cassidy

A happy event was solemnized at St. Patrick's church at 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning in the marriage of Mr. Patrick J. Bradshaw and Miss Henrietta E. Cassidy, Rev. F. J. Connor, of Malone, officiating at the ceremony. The couple were attended by Miss Claire Cassidy, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, and Mr. William E. Dwyer as best man. Many relatives and friends were in attendance at the church service.

The bride was attired in a pink georgette gown with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaid wore green georgette and carried pink roses.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Clarinda Cassidy and is one of the popular and attractive young ladies of the community. She has lived in the neighborhood practically her whole lifetime and her friends are numbered by all who have the pleasure of her acquaintance. Mr. Bradshaw is one of Chateaugay's successful farmers and is held in the highest esteem by everyone in the community for his upright character and honesty of purpose. That happiness and long life may be the fruits of the happy marriage is the wish of their many friends.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to about fifty relatives and friends, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw motored to Plattsburgh enroute to Burlington, Boston and other eastern cities. Upon their return they will make their home at Mr. Bradshaw's farm on the Federal highway north of the village.
